

52% of all sexual assaults occur where victims live

LINK BETWEEN HOUSING & SEXUAL VIOLENCE

Sexual violence can jeopardize a person's housing. Lack of housing or inadequate shelter can increase the risk for sexual violence. Nearly 10% of women and 8% men who experienced housing insecurity in the past year had a higher prevalence of intimate partner violence.

RELOCATION

of victims wanted to move after being sexually assaulted by their landlords, but could not afford to break a lease.

Nearly 80%

of victims living in public housing wanted to relocate because the perpetrator was nearby, but couldn't because of a lack of funds and housing options.

VICTIMIZATION OF INDIVIDUALS WHO ARE HOMELESS OR MARGINALLY HOUSED

VICTIMS OF PHYSICAL OR SEXUAL VIOLENCE

58% Of homeless LGBT youth

32% Of homeless women

27% Of homeless men

24% Of homeless youth witness sexual assaults

REASONS WHY YOUTH LEAVE THEIR HOMES

Being sexually abused at home:

Many homeless/run away LGBT youth leave after being rejected because of their gender identity and/or sexual orientation:
